

GIFTED PARIS VIOLINIST.

The above is a likeness of Miss Esther Margolen, of Paris, Ky., who will give a musical concert at the Court-house in Mt. Sterling Friday evening, March 10. Miss Margolen is a talented and accomplished violinist and has many admirers wherever she has played.

Miss Margolen when quite young received her first lesson on the violin from Sam Finney, an old ex-Confederate soldier, who was a musician of considerable note. She seemed to have mastery of the bow from the start, as it was a natural gift. Seeing that his daughter was deeply interested in the study of music, and that her favorite instrument was the violin, her father, Mr. H. Margolen, decided to give her the best possible instruction. He sent her to Cincinnati and placed her under the tutorage of Prof. Hahn, where she studied for three years. She then took a two years' course under Prof. Harry Froelich, of the Auditorium.

Miss Margolen has given numerous recitals, as well as adding her violin to the choirs of the various churches in Lexington. She is now engaged in teaching a class at Carlisle, Ky., and two of her pupils, Master Henry Bramlet and Miss Virginia Bramlet, will be heard in the concert at Mt. Sterling.

The bakery is waiting for good weather for building. A few days more on the oven is necessary.

The crowded condition of all our dormitories makes a new one a necessity. We must have one that will accommodate about one hundred boarders.

T. P. Webster has rented the residence and store of M. A. Mark & Son and has purchased the stock of goods. Mr. Webster is an experienced business man, having run a store at Soldier, Ky.

There are 80 boarders at Hudson Hall.

Farmers were as careful and systematic in the management of their herds as the breeders of pure breeds are with their cattle much better results would be secured from ordinary stock. Even the best breed will fail if not rightly managed, and all classes of stock can be made more productive if extra care is given.

PEACE TERMS

Made Known by St. Petersburg Reports—Indemnity the Unsettled Point.

A dispatch on Feb. 22, to Reuters Telegram Company from St. Petersburg, confirms advices from St. Petersburg to the effect that peace was under consideration, and adds that definite terms are being discussed there. The dispatch says:

The question of peace has not only been formally discussed, but the conditions on which Russia is prepared to make peace have practically been agreed upon. These are as follows:

"Korea is to be placed under Japanese sovereignty.

"Port Arthur and the Liao Tung peninsula to be ceded to Japan.

"Vladivostok to be declared a neutral port, with an open door.

The Eastern Chinese Railroad to be restored under neutral international administration.

"Manchuria, as far north as Harbin, to be restored as an integral part of the Chinese Empire.

"The difficulty lies in settling the question of indemnity, upon which it is known that Japan insists, but it is thought that this difficulty is not insuperable.

"The most trustworthy opinion at St. Petersburg is that, in view of the internal situation and the enormous difficulty in carrying on the war, peace on the terms outlined will be concluded within a comparatively short time, if the indemnity question can be arranged, but it is quite possible that Russia will risk another battle before a decision is reached."

BEREA COLLEGE.

Fined $1,000 For Violation of Day Act.—Appeal To Be Taken.

At Richmond, Ky., on Feb. 21st. Berea College was fined $1,000 for violation of the Day Act, the law passed by the General Assembly prohibiting the co-education of the white and colored races.

When the law was passed the college authorities at once declared their intention to abide by its provisions pending a decision as to its constitutionality. In order to raise the question a technical violation of the act was committed, and on such violation, by consent, the college as a corporation was indicted.

The college demurred to the indictment and the question of constitutionality was thus raised. Briefs were filed by both sides and Judge J. M. Benton overruled the demurrer and held the law constitutional. The conviction and fine followed as a matter of course, as the college made no defense as to the facts.

The case will go at once to the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.

The Federal officers in Chicago are busily engaged in gathering evidence to be used in the investigation of the Beef Trust before the special grand jury which is to meet on March 20. Commissioner of Corporations, Garfield is completing his report on the operations of the combine and will have it ready this week for the inspection of President Roosevelt.

The sixth annual tobacco fair at Maysville, Ky., was a success. The highest prices paid were ninety cents per pound for lugs.

IN THE "GOOD OLD TIMES."

Facts Which Tend to Show How Much Better Off We Are To-day.

Not until February of 1719 did the people of Kentucky know that Madison was elected President in the previous November.

In 1834 one of the leading railroads printed on its time table: "The locomotive will leave the depot every day at 10 o'clock, if the weather is fair."

In England some centuries ago, if an ordinary workman, without permission, moved from one parish to another in search of work or better wages he was branded with a hot iron.

When Benjamin Franklin first thought of starting a newspaper in Philadelphia many of his friends advised against it, because there was a paper published in Boston. Some of them doubted that the country would be able to support two newspapers.

One hundred years ago, the fastest land travel in the world was on the Great North road, in England, after it had been put into its best condition. There the York mail coach tore along at the rate of ninety miles a day, and many persons confidently predicted Divine vengeance on such unseemly haste.

When Thomas Jefferson was elected President of the United States, on February 17, 1801, after one of the most exciting political campaigns in our history, the gratifying news did not reach the suc-successful candidate for as many days as it now takes hours to transmit the result of a Presidential election to the whole civilized world.

When in 1809, Richard Trevithick uttered the following words there were many who considered him an insane, dangerous person: "The present generation will use canals, the next will prefer railroads with horses, but their more enlightened successors will employ steam carriages on railways as the perfection of the art of conveyance."

When Benjamin Franklin first took the coach from Philadelphia to New York he spent four days on the journey. He tells us that, as the old driver jogged along, he spent his time knitting stockings. Two stage coaches and eight horses sufficed for all the commerce that was carried on between Boston and New York, and in winter the journey occupied a week.

Napoleon, at the height of his power, could not command our every day conveniences, such as steam heat, running water, bath and sanitary plumbing, gas, electric light, steam-boats, the telegraph, the telephone, the phonograph, daily newspapers, magazines, and a thousand other blessings which are now a part of the daily necessities of even manual laborers.

When the first tons of anthracite coal were brought into Philadelphia in 1803 the good people of that city, so the records state "tried to burn the stuff; but, at length, disgusted, they broke it up and made a walk of it." Fourteen years later Colonel George Shumaker sold eight or ten wagonloads of it in the same city, but warrants were soon issued for his arrest for taking money under false pretenses.

WILLARD STATUE.

Unveiled at Washington Only Statue of Woman in Statuary Hall.

The snow-white marble statue of Miss Francis E. Willard, conspicuous as the only statue of a woman among a score or more of images of noted men, was unveiled in Statuary Hall of the capitol at Washington, on afternoon of Feb. 17, with exercises of a highly interesting and impressive character. The statue is a gift from the State of Illinois, but its formal acceptance was made the occasion for a loving tribute from the women of the entire country to the memory of the great temperance leader.

The exercises were conducted under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. The national officers of the organizations, a number of the state presidents and many leading workers from various parts of the country were in attendance. The exercises were attended also by the members of Congress in a body and addresses eulogizing the life, character and work of Miss Willard were delivered by several of the representatives from Illinois. 1,000 school children filed through Statuary Hall and each placed a white carnation at the base of the statue.

The statue is the work of Miss Helen Farnsworth Mears, of Wisconsin. It represents the famous temperance leader standing in modern dress by a reading desk as though about to address an audience. In her left hand are a few leaves of manuscript and her right arm rests easily on the desk. At her feet on the pedestal are carved these words from one of her addresses:

"Ah! it is women who have given the costliest hostage to fortune. Out into the battle of life they have sent their best loved, with fearful odds against them. Oh, by the dangers they have dared; by the hours of patient watching over beds where helpless children lay; by the income of ten thousands prayers wafted from their gentle lips to heaven, I charge you to give them power to protect along life's treacherous highways those whom they have so loved."

GOV. TAYLOR.

Now of Indiana Sends Mock Defendant Letter Outlining His Defense.

Former Governor William S. Taylor, Kentucky, has sent a letter to O. F. Missman, the student who impersonates him at the mock trial at Des Moines, Ia., in which he outlines his defense as fully as if his life hung in the balance. He explains in detail that he helped bring the mountaineers to the State Capitol purely for moral effect, and that they served their purpose and departed five days before the assassination of Goebel. As regards the latter, he had no knowledge and never discussed it with any of the confessed conspirators.

Mr. Taylor has taken an active interest in trial, and his attorneys and those of Caleb Powers, have been indefatigable in their efforts to equip the student lawyers with all information in their possession.

The Out-door Treatment For Diseases.

The effectiveness of the out-door treatment for diseases of the respiratory organs has received a remarkable endorsement in the first report of the New York State Hospital for the treatment of incipient tuberculosis, says the Oil City Derrick.

The sanitarium is located in the Adirondacks, and was opened in July, 1904, and has admitted eighty-two patients during the past six months. Of these, eleven have been discharged as cured, nineteen have apparently recovered, and in thirty-four the disease has been arrested.

The remainder, while showing some improvement, have not been long enough in the hospital to make certain positive results.

The patients not only sleep in the open air, being only protected from drafts and snowfalls, but spend much of the day time out of doors, playing billiards, cards and chess with a roof over their heads and a windbreak to shield them from the blasts, but there are no walls to the leeward. Human beings thrive on pure air. Pure air is not necessarily cold air, but the general tendency is to keep our artificially heated room improperly ventilated. It is in order to insure absolute purity of the air that enters the lungs that the out-of-door treatment is recommended.

With the thermometer flirting with the zero mark, the very idea of those people up in the Adirondacks sleeping in the open air is enough to make one shiver, but the wonderful successes that have followed this system of treatment demonstrate how quickly the average human being adapts himself to natural conditions. The people of the Arctic regions quickly succumb to climatic influence when removed to more temperate countries, but the average resident of the temperate zone is more readily acclimated and manages to endure the most violent extremes of cold and heat, ranging from the Klondike to the equatorial regions with comparative impunity.

STOESEL

Sets Foot on European Soil and Condoles With Widows and Orphans.

Lieut. Gen. Stoessel, the former commander at Port Arthur, arrived at Kafa, Crimea, on Feb. 22. He was welcomed by a cheering crowd. At the docks a deputation from the municipality presented him with the traditional bread and salt and an address of welcome, Stoessel, addressing the assemblage, said:

"My officers and soldiers coming back to the fatherland bow to you."

Many relatives of those who had defended Port Arthur were present, and there were pathetic exhibitions of grief and joy, according to the news he received. Stoessel personally condoled with the widows and orphans, and many of them kissed his hand. The General expressed indignation at the reports regarding the numbers of the available troops at Port Arthur at the time of the surrender of the fortress, and said the statements made were all untrue. The Russian fleet, he added, was destroyed beyond repair, there was no medicine in the fortress, it could not have held out more than a day longer and the surrender saved the women and children.

If we keep adding new States the map will have to be set in nonpareil.

WILLIAM BOTS

It has been said that Squire Edwards, of Breathitt, has or did have rheumatism, stomach trouble and liver trouble.

The attention of the Street Commissioner is hereby called to the bad condition of North Sycamore street—in some places the metal is cut through to the clay and there is danger of miring a heavy wagon.

THAT LOOK.

Young married folks should be careful with their facial expressions about things edible. An Iowa husband who had enjoyed his mother's flap-jacks and who got a wife without experience in the pan-cake art, and who looked at the cakes with such an expression that it brought poor health to the wife, and she has asked for a divorce.

The flattering prospect for the speedy construction of $100,000 government building, as the result of the Commercial Club of years ago, should inspire the Mens Club to more strenuous efforts in the securing of the Mt. Sterling Short Line Railroad. It should also encourage the citizens of Mt. Sterling to reorganize their men's club and to be on the alert in securing of the numerous enterprises that could be made to pay here.

The full length of Main street, also of Mayville and other streets is a real branch of slush. The present condition of the streets will doubtless put our Council to thinking and they may adopt the use of something, other than the soft stone which is slush during the rainy period and dust during a drought.

LOOK THIS WAY.

A negro postmaster wants to give up his job but the postoffice department refuses to consider his resignation because there is not another man at the Way Station that would have it. He indignantly accuses the Government of pronging. If the town would offer an invitation to some Kentucky office-seekers it would soon have an abundance of applicants.

DESERVE LOWEST RATE.

New hose wagon, well trained horse, and experienced superintendent, level headed chief, quick and capable firemen, bucket and ladder brigade, two fire engines, an inexhaustible water supply with adequate pressure, places Mt. Sterling in line for the lowest insurance rates. If she is not getting the lowest the Council would do well to look into this matter by special committee.

PURPLE AND GOLD.

Purple and Gold is the name of the Mt. Sterling High School Journal. It is well edited, full of good meaty articles. Its first issue appeared February 27th and was in demand. The next issue will be a great improvement on the first. We welcome the Purple and Gold most gladly. Its mission of inspiring its readers to higher and more thorough education is a noble one and every citizen should give their support and influence. Mt. Sterling citizens have shown their appreciation by a liberal patronage.

Long live the Purple and Gold!

BE CORRECT.

The Courier-Journal seems to have been premature in saying that the Hargis gang, in view of the exposure of their most recent plans, had not the effrontery to rely upon the indictments found by the Breathitt grand jury last week. Mr. McQuown, one of their attorneys, not only harshly criticized Judge Riddle for holding up those indictments temporarily, but sought by a roundabout method to get a copy of one of the indictments before the higher court. Freeman, on the witness stand showed himself to be, and was shown to be, just the kind of creature that such gentry might be expected to make use of in their scheme to cheat justice by legal thimberlingery.—Courier-Journal.

Attorneys who would themselves cheat justice by such conduct, lend their influence to favor crime. An upright judge, truthful witnesses, honorable lawyers, and correct jurors will bring about proper adjustment in all troubles.

SUCCESS SUMMED UP.

"Push," said the Button.

"Never be led," said the Pencil.

"Take Pains," said the Window.

"Always keep cool," said the Ice.

"Be up to date," said the Calendar.

"Never lose your head," said the Barrel.

"Make light of everything," said the Fire.

"Do a driving business," said the Hammer.

"Aspire to greater things," said the Nutmeg.

"Be sharp in all your dealings," said the Knife.

"Find a good thing and stick to it," said the Glue.

"Do the work you are suited for," said the Chimney.—Ex.

CONTINUOUS EFFORT COUNTS.

It has been many years ago since there was a Commercial Club in Mt. Sterling and it was kicked until its demise was announced and its burial had. During its life the question of a Government building came up. Then the two youngest editors in Mt. Sterling, who are now the oldest, J. C. Wood and J. W. Hedden, took the matter up and pushed it until J. H. Wilson, then Congress man of the 10th district, framed a bill asking for many appropriations. Its weight killed it. J. W. Kendall then took the matter up and asked for $25,000. After his death Hon. Joe M. Kendall revived it and amended it asking for $50,000. This bill went to committee on Public Building and Grounds, the data for an argument was gotten up by committee from Commercial Club, of which writer was chairman, and committee approved the bill. Mr. Kendall was then succeeded by Parson Hopkins, Republican Congressman, as a result of a contest and this bill was allowed to slumber until the present congressman, Mr. F. A. Hopkins, took the matter up. Now an appropriation for $100,000 is pending and Mr. Hopkins in a letter to Mr. Hedden says:

"When Congress convenes next winter I will ask you to furnish full statistics referring to your city which will be a basis for our claim for building, which we will get before we let up."

Such a statement with the pluck and tenacity of Mr. Hopkins is a guarantee that the appropriation will be made and the building be put up. We have written the above to show to our people that a Commercial Club organization is worth while and to inspire, if we can, our people with a determination to be continued in going out after something that would result in the material interest of Mt. Sterling. Let's get together with a Business Mens Club and continue in the work of building up and improving Mt. Sterling. Whatever helps one helps all.

LACE TIGHT AND BE GREAT.

Such Is Text of Correspondent Who Says Gents and Small Waists Are Desirable.

A correspondent says that "the tight-lacing periods of history have always been productive of the greatest geniuses; the loose-dressing periods the reverse. Bacon, Shakespeare, Drake, Marlborough, Thackeray, Dickens, Scott—to mention only a few of the names—were born when chroniclers and fashion artists reveal to us the fact that "women were never satisfied till they could span their waists" and "while 18 inches was the fashionable standard, many fashionable girls and women possessed waists fully two or three inches smaller."

"One is again seeing much neater figures, and corseteers predict a revival of tight-lacing. Let us hope that this will mean a climb upward from the abyss of common-place, and a recondescence of the brilliance which distinguished the Elizabethan age."

But Thackeray said he would as lief marry a girl with a humped back as one with an 18-inch waist.

Born Tired.

An actor was approached by a battered mendicant the other day who solicited alms. The actor reached in his pocket to help the unfortunate one and asked: "How long have you been out of work, my man?" "I was born in '88, sir," responded the homeless one.—Chicago Chronicle.

WHY COUNTRY WAS TAKEN

Expansion Was a Deliberate Scheme of Russia as Compensation for European Checks.

British opinion on the whole seems to take the view that the Russian occupation of Manchuria, and of Port Arthur in particular, was an act of wanton aggression, says a London paper, principally the work of prying preconscious and ambitious generals, whose proceedings have been reluctantly indorsed by a government too far removed from them to arrest the execution of their projects, and that now the same government would be only too glad to be quit of the whole tangle. This we believe to be a common notion in France, but it is deduced from inaccurate premises.

The expansion of Russia in the direction of China has not been the handiwork of adventurous spirits, whose proceedings could have been easily disavowed if unsuccessful. It is, on the contrary, a deliberate and well-thought-of scheme of compensation for checks in Europe. It is recognized by Russian statesmen, if not openly avowed, that projects of development in the near east are not likely to prove remunerative for some time to come, if ever, and that China offers a far more favorable field for their energy. If this be the case, it is easy to account for the immense efforts made and expense incurred in civilizing Manchuria, in building towns and railways, which the last few years have seen.

The British people had indeed spent a great deal less in money and labor in the development of South Africa before the Boer war than Russia had spent in Manchuria before the outbreak of the war with Japan. Why should Russia, then, be any the more ready to retire from Manchuria, even if Karapontchik be more decisively defeated than has been at present, than the British were to give up the struggle with Colenso?

JAIL FOR INDIAN TRUANTS.

Copper-Skinned Hokey-Players Wind Up Careers with Whipping and Lock-Up.

It doesn't pay for an Indian schoolboy to play hokey. Guns are employed to capture the truant, and if caught he is not tamed with a birch, but is hustled to prison like a felon. At least, so we are to believe if this account of one of the tuteurs at the Chillicothe institute is true, says the Kansas City Journal.

"One party of five Ponca boys that I escorted to Chillicothe last December remained over Sunday and were returning to the reservation ahead of me. Unfortunately, they got on the smoker of the returning train and one of them looked into the coach. I instantly surmised that the others were with him, and soon had three well seated and under guard. The fourth refused to come in and we indulged in a wrestling bout on the platform with the train speeding along at a rate of 40 miles an hour. I soon quit this method of capture, as it might have ended disastrously for both of us. Just as the train pulled into Ponca City my runaway jumped and I after him. He refused to stop and I fired twice, which simply quickened his speed, and I finally managed to remark that with proper training that Indian could easily join the professional class of sprinters. I landed at the Ponca agency long after midnight with the three others, who were imprisoned."

Believes in Woman's Rights.

The exposure of Hargis as a strong believer in woman suffrage, women's clubs, the higher education of women and in her rights to enter any and all of the professions. She holds that almost all have been brought about by word of the great reforms of the world, and that they are just becoming conscious of their power and possibilities. Under her imperial patronage societies for the development of women are growing numerous in St. Petersburg and being spreading through the jealousy guarded realm of the czar.

Briefs have been filed before the Court of Appeals in the Hargis case. The case will be tried by a full Court, and decision is expected at the close of the week.

Governor Denies That Hargis Asked For His Support.

He Didn't Ask Hargis to Resign From State Committee.

In an interview by telephone on Feb. 26 Gov. Beckham denied a report that Judge James Hargis had called on him to support his support in his trouble incident in Fayette and Breathitt counties charging him and his brother, Senator Elbert Hargis and Sheriff Callahan, of Breathitt, with procuring the assassination of Town Marshal Cockrill, of Jackson.

Governor Beckham said that he had not been visited or besought by Judge Hargis or any one representing him, and denied that he had asked Judge Hargis to resign from the Democratic State Central Committee. He said that he had no relation to the delinquents or the case, and would avoid connection in any way with these cases or any affairs not concerning him.

Judge Hargis and others from Jackson who appeared before the Court of Appeals Saturday were in Lexington Sunday night. He denied the report that he had appealed to the Governor for support.

We felt sure that Governor Beckham did not have anything to do in the Breathitt trouble, but we are certain he will have something to do with it if trouble do not come to an end right speedily.

The forest leaves in varied hue,
Are hazy to behold,
They shine through atmosphere of blue,
Like sunbeams and gold.

While here and there a crimson tint,
Believes the mountainside,
And barren spots show the imprint
Of clods of acid stone.

Here mountains end in rugged peaks,
To kindly ope a door,
Through which New River, fed by creeks,
Must dash with deafening roar.

Upon those crazy mountains high,
The eagles build their nests,
And teach their young the art to fly;
When weary here they rest.

These peaks are lifted up so high,
They catch the sun's first ray,
And view him last in evening sky,
At close of every day.

Though storm clouds battle far below,
And smite the mountain side,
Upon those heights the eagles know,
The sunlight will abide.

From off you over-hanging rock,
Where slimy serpents creep,
Two lovers at restraint to mock,
Once made a fatal leap.

And last their rashness be forgot,
Its memory we keep,
By pointing often to that spot,
And call it "Lovers Leap."

And still we view another knob,
Much steeper than the rest,
So one dare undertake the job,
Of robbing "The Hawk's Nest."

Since with our mortal eyes we saw
The grandeur there displayed,
Our hearts are filled with sacred awe,
We've come away dismayed.

$100,000.

Hon. F. A. Hopkins has asked Congress for an appropriation of $100,000 with which to put up a Government building at Mt. Sterling. It is said these appropriations will not be made until after the meeting of the next winter session of Congress. The bill was introduced February 23rd and referred to the committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

The following is the bill:

A bill for the erection of a public building at Mount Sterling, Kentucky.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate
2 and House of Representatives
3 of the United States of Amer-
4 ica in Congress Assembled,
5 That the Secretary of the 6 Treasury be, and he is hereby,
7 authorized and directed to ac-
8 quire, by purchase, condemna-
9 tion, or otherwise, a site and 10 cause to be erected thereon a
11 suitable building, including 12 fireproof vaults, heating and
13 ventilating apparatus, elevat-
14 ors, and approaches, for the 15 use and accommodation of the 16 United States post-office, col-17 lector of internal revenue, and 18 other Government offices in the 19 city of Mount Sterling and 20 State of Kentucky, the cost of 21 said site and building, includ-
22 ing said vaults, heating and
23 ventilating apparatus, elevat-
24 ors, and approaches, complete,
25 not to exceed the sum of one
1 hundred thousand dollars,
2 which said sum of one hundred
3 thousand dollars is hereby ap-
4 propriated for said purpose out
5 of any money in the United
6 States Treasury not otherwise
7 appropriated.

8 Proposals for the sale of land
9 suitable for said site shall be
10 invited by public advertise-
11 ment in one or more of the 12 newspapers of said city of 13 largest circulation for at least
14 twenty days prior to the date
15 specified in said advertisement
16 for the opening of proposals.
17 Proposals made in response
18 to said advertisement shall be 19 addressed and mailed to the 20 Secretary of the Treasury, who
21 shall then cause the said pro-22 posed sites, and such others as 23 he may think proper to design-
24 ate, to be examined in person
25 by an agent of the Treasury Department, who shall make
2 written reports to said Secre-
3 tary of the results of said ex-
4 amination and of his recom-
5 mendations thereon and the 6 reasons therefor, which shall
7 be accompanied by the original
8 proposals, and all maps, plans,
9 and statements which shall
10 have come into his possession
11 relating to the said proposed 12 sites.

13 If upon consideration of said
14 report and accompanying pa-
15 pers the Secretary of the 16 Treasury shall deem further 17 investigation necessary, he 18 may appoint a commission of 19 not more than three persons,
20 one of whom shall be an officer
21 of the Treasury Department,
22 which commission shall also
23 examine the said proposed sites
24 and such others as the Secre-
25 tary of the Treasury may des-
1 gnate, and grant such hear-
2 ings in relation thereto as they
3 shall deem necessary; and said
4 commission shall, within thir-
5 ty days after such examina-
6 tion, make to the Secretary of 7 the Treasury written report of 8 their conclusion in the prem-
9 ises, accompanied by all state-
10 ments, maps, or documents
11 taken by or submitted to them,
12 in like manner as hereinbefore
13 provided in regard to the pro-
14 ceedings of said agent of the 15 Treasury Department; and the 16 Secretary of the Treasury
17 shall thereupon finally deter-
18 mine the location of the build-
19 ing to be erected.

20 The compensation of said
21 commissioners shall be fixed by 22 the Secretary of the Treasury,
23 but the same shall not exceed 24 six dollars per day and actual
25 traveling expenses: Provided,
1 however, That the member of
2 said commission appointed
3 from the Treasury Department
4 shall be paid only his traveling
5 expenses.

6 So much of the appropria-
7 tion herein named as may be
8 necessary to defray the ex-
9 penses of advertising for pro-
10 posals, actual traveling ex-
11 penses of said agent, and the 12 compensation and actual trav-
13 eling expenses of said com-
14 missioners, and other expenses
15 incident to the selection of the 16 site, and for the necessary sur-
17 vey thereof and payment there-
18 of shall be immediately
19 available.

20 So much of said appropria-
21 tion as may be necessary for 22 the preparation of sketch plans,
23 drawings, specifications, and 24 detailed estimates for the 25 building by the Supervising
1 Architect of the Treasury De-
2 partment shall be available im-
3 mediately upon the approval
4 by the Secretary of the Treas-
5 ury of such site.

6 After the said site shall be
7 given for the sketch plans
8 and detailed estimates for the 9 building shall have been pre-
10 pared by the Supervising Arch-
11 tect of the Treasury and ap-12 proved by the Secretary of the 13 Treasury, the balance of said
14 appropriation shall be avail-
15 able for the erection and com-
16 pletion of the building, includ-
17 ing fireproof vaults, heating
18 and ventilating apparatus, ele-
19 vators, and approaches.

20 The building shall be unex-
21 posed to danger from fire by 22 an open space of at least thirty
23 feet on each side, including
24 streets and alleys.

SUMMER COON.

I have bin called on by most of all the prominent admals of the state to take a hand in our state trouble before the bottom of Kentucky drops out and looses the whole load. My want basket is kep chuck full of all kinds of letters and telegraph dispatches coming in for my train. I hardly get one trouble settled before an other comes up. I have jest got a union depot started on wheels in Lexington, now I am figuring on having the state capitol moved from frankfort to Jackson in brethit county. I beleav it would be a better place for business. I beleav I hav a bout got the ten million long green promblum up and going, so look out for Mrs. Chadwick next. I prepose to call all of the American powars to gather and see if there cant be sum steps taking in which we can all hand ourselves together and a gree on a plan to induce our people to come back in the line of civilization. It looks like the whole load has gone rong, especly in old Kantuck. The Brethit and Fayatt admals should be brought to gather harmonously and save futher expence to the country. I am afeard if the Brethit and Fayatt admals should come to geather in a rage of fashion the ground would be so badly disfigered it would not produce and more long green tobaccker, besides all the flavor in the atmspher would be ruined for sum time. It wont do to neglect thoe nashinal troubles to long. If this trouble cant be settled between the admals without a pop gun war we may jest as well send a few of our battle ships and torpedo boats up red river and take fort Jackson at once, then let the people say who shal be high buck or lo do in the lay out. Jest think a bout what a narro escape wee had in mooving that pile of mud between the goveror and Jo. It uto be said avry dog has his day, but that wont work now, for there is more dogs then days at this stage of the game; however we will side track on this subject and line up on the large union depot which is now sprouting up from ehin music seed. Gee, but wont it be a cracker jack. By gosh I wish it wer built now so a feller might hav a place to hang a round and keep sorter warne the cold nights, but still I no there is nothing in it but talk; it is a old gag; it comes up avry few years. The question of the depot runs along the ground hog line—the springs out now and then and then she falls back in the hole for a few summers more. I have often noticed sum fellows when the wer seated in a good comfortable place about half full of bug juice backed up with a quid of long green or a cob pipe, what big schemes would tackel there brains and it would take several days in sum cases for thoe schemes to work off. Jest keep an eye on this depot rackett and if it dont prove to be a dead ceek in the pit then I will giv up the mule; mind what I tole you. It takes the real stuff itself to get rail roads and depots. Sum times a fello may think he has a bull by the horns and when he begins to sum himself up he finds he tackeld another ground hog. So if we can all get together and do our duty as far as we no, what a demand there will be for ropes. Talk about your ten million of backer money that is to be seatered a bout all over the state for the benefit of the long green brigade ant a circumstane to what the rope trade would be if avry thing wer earled on in a buisness-like maner in old Kantuck. I dont no but I beleave Mr. Mose Feltner would say that I wer write, for Mose cant be doated; he is always chuck full of the clean thing, you bet. Wel, I had concluded to cheek up on the fifth sheet, tho I will make a few more seatering remarks. I hav bin watching and reading up closely along the line of the Brethit county assani-nation and I notie it is easy for one class of the people to trail up and find out all about the men who concocked and led the dirty work done, and yet none of those same people is in shape to no any thing about who the laddy bucks wer that promted the assaniation of govornor Gobel. Circumstantial evidence seems to work all right in the Brethit job, but thas are no good in the Gobel job. Now if Mr. Powers is not gitty let us throw in and hav him cleard. No one seem him pull the trigger. Let the good Lord deturmin who is a who and who ant.

SUMMER COON.

Fire.

The First Presbyterian Church at Lawrenceburg was burned on Sunday morning during the service. The building was old, and cost about $10,000; insured for $3,000.

Emma Russell committed suicide in Middleboro on Saturday because she was disappointed in love.

No action of the Kentucky Federal building bills is expected at this session of Congress.

Governor Appoints.

Mr. James M. Richardson, of Barren county, has resigned as State Prison Commissioner and Col. Harvey McCutcheon, of Russellville, is tipped to succeed him.

Indicted.

On Tuesday of last week a Breathitt county grand jury indicted the Hargises, Callahan and others for the murder of James Cockrell in the summer of 1902. This is regarded as an attempt to prevent Fayette county having the trial for indictments there.

$4,000,000 Fire at New Orleans.

The freight terminals of the Illinois Central Railroad, including immense grain elevators, sugar sheds and cotton warehouses extending along the river front, 5,000 bales of cotton, 12,000 barrels of sugar, fifty cottages and other property aggregating $4,000,000, were burned.

Result of the Labors of Mountain Evangelists.

As a means of the gospel preaching in Eastern Kentucky 4,000 persons were converted in Eastern Kentucky, in the month of February. Of this number 1,800 took membership with the Baptist church, 1,000 the Methodist church, 1,700 the Presbyterian churches and 500 the Christian church.

Give the hens good care

Make arrangements to give the poultry the best of care. What pays better than egg at 25 to 30 cents per dozen? If the chickens are fed well here there will be eggs, and when eggs bring such prices a few dozen means quite a little sum. Give them a potato mash with meal or other ground feed often, and you will find that it pays. There is the most profit in eggs and more study and care should be given to fill the egg basket. Don't let the women tend to this alone, but put in your effort besides, and see if two heads are not better than one.

PUBLIC SALES.

Kidd & Cravens, Auctioneers, report the following sales:

EUBANK SALE.

At W. W. Eubank's sale on Feb. 23 there was a large attendance and fair prices were had. Seven horses sold from $65 to $255; 3 aged mules $65 to $80; cows, $25 to $40; calves, $8 to $20; 38 ewes and lambs at $5.50; corn in field, $2; hay, $8 per ton.

COONS SALE.

At Wm. Coons' sale horses went from $40 to $90.50; 1 six-year-old mule, $127; cows, $17 to $40; stock shoats, 5c per pound. Big crowd and bidding lively.

William Harper Will test Power of Will Over Illness.

President William R. Harper, of the University of Chicago, is said to have made a determination that in his case the X ray treatment will be given the fullest and most complete test it has ever been put to as a cure for cancer and a destroyer of the cancerous growth in the tissues.

His friends believe that his force of mind and mastery of will-power will help a long way toward the desired result. Dr. Harper is possessed of marvelous power of concentration, and it is his plan to demonstrate at least the partial mastery of mind over bodily ill.

It is pointed out that Cecil Rhodes cured himself of a deadly affliction after he had been given up by physicians. Dr. Harper, it is said, will follow the South African's example by using the utmost will-force in conjunction with the X-ray to shake off the disease.

Pension For Man Who Lost All Because He Stood For Principle.

The House passed without a dissenting vote a bill to give a pension of $30 a month to an ex-United States Senator who was ruined and reduced to absolute poverty because he would not vote to convict President Andrew Johnson.

He is Edmund G. Ross, then a Republican Senator from Kansas. He was one of the little band of Republicans who stood out against the furious clamor of that time, defied their party and voted according to their convictions.

For this Ross lost his seat in the Senate. The subscribers to his newspapers stopped their subscriptions, the advertisers withdrew their advertisements; he was boycotted and driven out of society. His old acquaintances cut him dead. "Even the dogs I used to know won't let me pat their heads," said he.

Forced out of business and unable to get employment, he had to leave Kansas, but could not get employment anywhere. He is now eighty-two years of age, and for ten years he has been earning a living by sticking type in country printing offices in New Mexico.

The bill to pension him is introduced by Delegate Rodey, of New Mexico, and pushed through by him and Representative Calderhead, of Kansas. It will undoubtedly pass the Senate. It is ostensibly based on the fact that Ross was a brave soldier in the Union army in the Civil War, but actually, it is being supported as a tardy reparation to a man who suffered for his convictions, Pittsburgh Times.

President Delighted.

Jack Chinn is of the opinion that Bryan and Roosevelt are the two greatest men living, and their greatest he estimates in the order named: "When Representative Trimble presented Jack Chinn to President Roosevelt the strenuous Executive was more than 'delighted.' Col. Chinn said he was a 'Bryan-Roosevelt Democrat,' and the President laughed all over and showed more than the usual number of teeth. He allowed his other callers wait a few minutes while he and the Kentuckian chatted. Col. Chinn says Bryan and Roosevelt are the greatest men in the country.

Poultry Raising Pays.

James Cravens, of this county, was reminded of the business he was doing and what it paid from what he had learned from Fogg's poultry raising published in last week's issue. He said, I have raised tobacco for the past twenty years and for my labor and worry I have barely made a support and my wife who has looked after poultry and kept a bank account of her own has to her credit more than $350.00. I am sure poultry raising pays and my wife will go into the business larger this year.

The Federal grand jury at Cleveland reported two additional indictments against Mrs. Chadwick, alleging that she aided and abetted Cashier Spear, of the Oberlin bank, in misplacing funds and making false entries in the bank's books. The indictments against Mrs. Chadwick read "alias C. L. Chadwick, alias 'Mae Devere.' There are four indictments altogether against her.

K. W. C. NOTES. [Winchester, Ky.]

The work of the students was not interrupted by the burning of the College but for one day. School was begun in temporary quarters on Wheeler Ave., on Thursday.

The four contestants to represent the college in the State Oratorical Contest are busy on their orations.

The committee for raising funds to rebuild the college at Winchester are very successful.

The Euclidean Literary Society will meet in the basement of the Christian Church as temporary quarters; while the Philomathean Literary Society will meet in the Sunday-school room of the Methodist Church. Mr. Jno. White Trimble is President of the Philomathean.

The entertainment given by the College at the court-house to celebrate Washington's Birthday, was a success. Mr. John M. Stevenson, of the local bar, delivered a masterful oration on the work of Washington and its influence. Music was rendered by choir from the college students with the assistance of Mrs. Savage, Mrs. Anderson and Miss Buckner.

Residence Property in Demand.

T. F. Rogers, the live real estate agent, has in the last few days rented city property to the following persons, who have identified their interests with ours:

Mrs. Elizabeth Everett's brick residence on Mayville street to Dr. J. T. Ricketts and John M. McCormick.

Mrs. Mary Dickey's property on Winn street to James K. Royce, of Clark county.

Mrs. Anna Lee Cannon's property on Winn street to Thomas Cook for his mother, who moves here from her farm in Bracken county.

Elm street cottage of T. F. Rogers to John W. White, of Steptone.

The second story of Mrs. Minerva Williams' brick building, Sycamore and High streets, to Mrs. Jessie Henry, of Bourbon county.

East Main street residence of Dr. R. Q. Drake to J. F. Trumbo, and diverse other pieces of property to persons who have come to Mt. Sterling to make their home. He could rent much more if it could be had.

EXPRESSIVE NAME FOR INDICATION.

W. S. Lloyd Has Simple Remedy That is Guaranteed to Cure The Trouble.

No one word better expresses the condition of the sufferer from weak stomach or indigestion than "mildness." The stomach is weak and cannot digest the food, so that there is no appetite, there are pains and griping in the stomach and bowels, the head and back ache, and misery goes to every organ. Strengthen the stomach and the digestive system by the use of Mi-na. This is the only stomach remedy known that gives relief by strengthening the stomach and digestive organs. It is the principle that makes it a certain cure for indigestion. Other remedies may give temporary relief by helping digest the food, but they do not strengthen the stomach and that organ gets weaker and weaker all the time.

W. S. Lloyd the reliable retail Druggist has so much confidence in this remarkable remedy that he guarantees a cure, or the money will be refunded. Mi-na costs but 50 cents a box. Ask to see the strong guarantee given with every box.

Mi-na is in tablet form and should be taken before each meal. Other remedies for stomach troubles and indigestion are taken after the meal, and decompose the good food you eat, but Mi-na must be taken before eating, strengthens the stomach, soothes and heals all irritation and inflammation, enriches the blood, and puts the stomach in such a healthy condition that it will take care of the food itself and there will be no pain and suffering.

Accident.

James Offutt, aged 80, of Georgetown, died on Sunday having slipped on icy pavement and broke his shoulder.

At a Negro funeral in Brooklyn, the floor of a church collapsed and thirteen were killed and fifty were injured.

DEATHS.

BLAKE.—Thomas Blake who died at Winchester on last Friday was buried in Catholic cemetery at this place Monday. His wife was a cousin of Pat Shannon. He was 55 years old.

GARRETT.—Mrs. Rebecca Garrett, wife of J. R. (Bob) Garrett, died at Georgetown, Ky., on Friday night, February 24, 1905, of paralysis, after a short sickness. The family lived here several years ago, her husband being editor of the Sentinel, now the Sentinel-Democrat. Mrs. Garrett was a most excellent woman, a consistent member of the Baptist Church, and sister-in-law of Jerry Cockrell, of this city.

HENSLEY.—On Sunday, after being sick a week, Howard Hensley, one of the most highly respected colored men in this city, died from paralysis, aged 73 years. He had 11 children, 7 of whom survive him. Among them are P. L., of this city; Mrs. Susie Hensley and Milton, of Chicago, and John, of Dayton. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and after service at the home of his son, Peter, by Rev. J. Smith, remains were buried in Olive Hill Cemetery.

YOUNG.—After a short sickness, death came suddenly to Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of Hon. Jno. D. Young, of our city, on Wednesday night, February 22, 1905. She was born in Bath county March 25, 1825, hence would soon have been 80 years old. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Badger. She was married to Mr. Young on August 27, 1843. It is seldom that husband and wife for nearly 62 years share the joys and sorrows of life. Mr. Young is still able to attend to business and mingle with friends. Seven children are living: Mrs. Jacob Henry, J. Monroe Young, Mrs. Edward Bean and Jno. D. Young, Jr., all of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. J. B. Martin, of Richford, Vt.; Mrs. James Powell, of Louisville, and Mrs. Jno. W. White, of this city. A good woman has entered into the rest that awaits the people of God. In her 13th year she gave her heart to the Christ, and her life, adorned with the graces of such a faith, has been spent in the service of her Savior, a rich benediction to those who came in contact with her. The funeral service was conducted at the Christian Church on Saturday morning by Rev. H. D. Clark, whose words of comfort, assurance and hope were full of praise for her who had fallen asleep in Christ, and of inspiration to noble living by all who heard him. To the aged husband and his children we extend our sympathy.

Paul Jeffries, of Indianapolis, Ind., formerly a Clerk of the Indiana House of Representatives, now a thrifty cool dealer of Indianapolis, was here Sunday morning of last week the guest of his cousin, Brack Jeffries. From a conversation with a reporter of the Advocate we learned that the people of Indiana were of the opinion that if W. S. Taylor, a refugee from Kentucky was returned to him, that they believed that a mob would be formed and that a chance for his life before a Kentucky jury would never be had. The present Governor he did not believe would ever honor a requisition from Kentucky and that Taylor would rest at ease during the present administration. Mr. Jeffries further said Taylor was unpopular in business relations. At this point a listener joined in and said: "A State official of Indiana, of high rank, had said he wished Kentucky had Taylor that he might receive his just deserts."

Have your suit ordered and tried on before finished. Our cutter, Mr. Swaffield, makes special trips to try on all orders. Mr. Swaffield will be with us Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 7, 8 and 9, with all the up-to-date patterns for spring and summer. We want you to see this line.

Yours respectfully,

One Better.

The Old Kentucky Telephone and Telegraph Company could not be stopped in her aggressiveness even though the mercury registered in the neighborhood of zero, and on the 23d of February announced to the public she was ready for talk with Clay City. This line is not going to stop with Clay City. It proposes connection with all sections East and West, North and South.

N. T. Benton, who some time ago accepted a position as traveling salesman in Kentucky, has resigned and is again with The Guthrie Clothing Co., where he asks his old friends and customers to call and see him.

Harry Wright, formerly of this city, who has been attending school in Louisville, has added his name to the list of the many other telegraphers who are on the Illinois Central Railroad. We wish for him a bright future.

Winchester Court.

About 200 cattle at Scoobe's pen. The best price for feeders was $4.15. Some sales were at 3 1/2 and 3 3/4, but more were at 4c.

Elevated Street Railway.

Winchester's under-ground system of street railway has been elevated — it is now a surface system.

George W. Anderson, Jr., and Grover Anderson have resigned from duty at Clay City and will engage in farming, having rented a farm pike. — The Times.

The good news comes from New Orleans that Dr. R. Q. Drake is fast recovering and that Dr. W. R. Thompson is well and getting fat and strong. Mrs. Drake and son, Ben P., have fully recovered.

Change in Firm.

W. R. Nunnally has sold his interest in the Guthrie Clothing Company to Mr. W. P. Guthrie, and the business will continue as heretofore under the name of "The Guthrie Clothing Company."

This business started under the above name years ago in a very modest way with W. P. Guthrie & W. R. Nunnally at the head, and now the Guthrie Clothing Company is one of Mr. Sterling's best paying enterprises. Mr. Guthrie expects to add largely and to increase his business according to the demands on it. Norvel Benton, who had arranged to go on the road will be with Mr. Guthrie.

Mr. Nunnally is undecided as to his future plans. He has some very flattering business propositions. A man of his business capacity and hustle will command most any good place in reason, and he doubtless will have charge of some the business before many days.

New Tobacco Warehouse.

Mr. Tandy Quisenberry, late of Louisville, the old warehouseman and tobacco inspector of that market, is now employed as TOBACCO INSPECTOR by the Buckeye Leaf Tobacco Warehouse, 7 to 17 E. Water street, Cincinnati, O. W. A. Bradford & Co., proprietors. This is strictly an INDEPENDENT warehouse and does a commission business. He has many acquaintances among the farmers of Montgomery county and they will do well to consign their tobacco to the Buckeye, knowing that they will have a fair and honest deal through Mr. Quisenberry as inspector. 33-4c
